

Advanced Burn Life Support® Course

Advanced Burn Life Support (ABLS) programs help medical professionals develop expertise for immediate care of the burn patient during the first 24 hours post-injury, including emergency and mass casualty preparedness focusing on triage, burn survivability, patient transportation, and patient treatment.

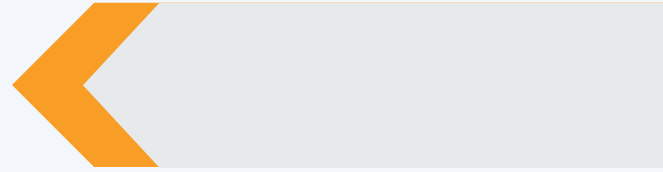

ABLS is tailored to nurses, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, physicians, first responders, and other medical professionals who treat individuals with burn injuries.

Earn Your ABLS Certificate!

WHEN:

WHERE:

REGISTER NOW:

Registration for this ABLS course is available on the American Burn Association website.

1. Log in or create an account at ameriburn.org
2. Enter the registration code provided by the course coordinator then click Next
3. Verify course detail then select Checkout and Pay

POST COURSE:

Complete the post-course assessment emailed to you after finishing the course to receive your ABLS certificate and CE hours. These hours will be added to your ABA profile. Visit the help center for assistance.

ACCME:

The American Burn Association is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The American Burn Association designates this live course for a maximum of 7 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

ANCC:

The American Burn Association is accredited as a provider of Nursing Continuing Professional Development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation. This activity is accredited for 7 nursing contact hours.

ABLS courses are delivered by third-parties with approval from the American Burn Association. Feedback is welcome and may be sent to abls@ameriburn.org.

